Categories of Honorary Degrees

Persons nominated for honorary degrees will normally fall into one of the following categories, which are listed in descending order of coincidence with the profile of the University:

I. Outstanding scholars whose work in fields represented at UNSW has transformed the knowledge base of the field.
II. People whose ideas have transformed our understanding of the world and the ways in which we arrange our lives.

VI. People who have given eminent service to society by advancing important causes.
VII. A person of distinguished eminence in some branch of learning appropriate to a particular Faculty.

Guidelines

IV. Serving politicians or aspirants to political office are generally not eligible.
V. Proposals for honorary degrees should only be made if there is reasonable expectation that the recipient will be able to travel to Sydney to receive the award at a graduation ceremony within a reasonable period of time after approval by Council.
