1. Purpose and Scope

The purpose of this procedure is to establish a process:

- by which a graduand is admitted to the award for which they are qualified by University Council or delegate thereof (and thereby become a graduate), as provided by section 7.1.1(b) of the Register of Delegations; and
- to revoke awards to which a student or former student have been wrongly admitted.
- to correct awards that have been conferred with details that are partially incorrect.

2. Definitions

Graduand – a student who has completed the requirements of their degree but has not yet had their award conferred.

Admit/admission– an encompassing term which describes the process by which a student has their degree conferred on them or is admitted to their award.

Conferral – the act of bestowing a degree upon a person qualified to receive it. Please note of all the University’s awards, only degrees can be conferred.

Award – A recognized qualification from UNSW including Degree, Graduate Certificate, Diploma. .

Testamur – The official certification of a student’s completion of a degree or award.

SIMS – Student information management system

3. Section 7.1 of the Register of Delegations

This procedure relates only to the function/authority set out in sections 7.1.1(b) and 7.1.5 of the Register of Delegations.

Under section 7.1.1(b), the named delegates are granted authority to admit graduands to degrees and/or awards by signing a document that has been prepared in a form which is authorised by this procedure. The intention behind this section is that it provides for a process whereby graduands who are named in a document that is signed by the delegate are admitted to a degree and/or award by virtue of, and at the moment of, the delegate signing the document.

The process set out in section 7.1.1(b) is to be contrasted with the process set out in section 7.1.1(a). It is also to be contrasted with the process set out in section 7.1.3, whereby graduands are able to be admitted to a degree and/or award other than at a graduation ceremony in exceptional circumstances. The process set out in section 7.1.1(b) is intended to be a regular, rather than an exceptional, circumstance.

Under section 7.1.5, named delegates are granted authority to revoke a degree or award to which a student or former student has been wrongly admitted.

4. Procedure

The document prepared under section 7.1.1(b) of the Register of Delegations is titled 'Recommendation of Candidates for Admission to Awards'. The course of events which leads up to the preparation of this document is as follows.

4.1 Conditions Leading to the Creation of the Document

- The Program Authority confirms through a process in the student information management system (SIMS) that the student has, in accordance with the Program Rules, met all of the criteria to be eligible to receive their award.
- The Student Administration Graduations Team (SAGT) completes a process in SIMS by which confirmed students are recorded as having completed their study.
- The SAGT produces the document 'Recommendation of Candidates for Admission to Awards' by using SIMS to generate a report listing those students identified as complete along with the details of their award.

4.2 The Nature and Form of the Document

The SAGT will prepare the document 'Recommendation of Candidates for Admission to Awards'. The document will contain:

- A cover page
- A list of candidates (graduands) eligible to be admitted to their award

The document 'Recommendation of Candidates for Admission to Awards' will be prepared by the SAGT for signature by one of the delegates listed in section 7.1.1(b) of the Register of Delegations on a regular basis. The act of signing the document by the delegate will admit the graduands listed therein to their respective award(s) and mark the moment by which the graduands listed in the document become graduates.

Please see Appendix B for an example of the 'Recommendation of Candidates for Admission to Awards' document.

4.3 Revocation of an Award

- When it has been identified that a student or former student has been admitted to an award wrongly, by reason, for example, of fraud, administrative error, or a material breach of University policy or procedure, SAGT will prepare the document 'Recommendation of Revocation of Awards'. The document will contain:
 - A cover page
 - A list of students or former students who have received awards but were wrongly admitted.

The 'Recommendation of Revocation of Awards' document will present for signature by one of the delegates listed in section 7.1.5 of the Register of Delegations a list of awards to which students or former students have been wrongly admitted. The act of signing the document by the delegate will mark the moment the awards listed in the document are revoked.

Please see Appendix C for an example of the 'Recommendation of Revocation of Awards' document.

4.4 Correction of an Award

When it has been identified that students have been admitted to an award where one or more details of the award are incorrect, SAGT will prepare the document 'Recommendation of Correction of Awards'. The document will contain:

- A cover page
- A list of students who have received awards and the proposed amendments to those awards

The 'Recommendation of Correction of Awards' document will present for signature by one of the delegates listed in section 7.1.5 of the Register of Delegations a list of awards to which students have been admitted where one or more details of the award are incorrect. The act of signing the document by the delegate will mark the moment the awards listed in the document are corrected.

Please see Appendix D for an example of the 'Recommendation of Correction of Awards' document.

4.5 How the Document will be Stored

All authorised Recommendation of Candidates for Admission to Awards documents will be kept on file by Student Administration pursuant to the Privacy and Personal Information Protection Act 1989 (NSW) and compliant with State Records requirements [GDA23 - General Retention and Disposal Authority].

5. Review & History

These Procedures are due for review 12 months from the date of effect.
